CONCLUSION OF YOUR EXCHANGE

I was really surprised by how kind and welcoming Irish people are. For example, on our first day, my flatmates and I got lost on campus after doing our grocery shopping, and two guys not only helped us find our way but also carried our heavy bags all the way back to our village. Something else that surprised me was how far everything is from everything else. Getting to the city centre took nearly an hour, plus a 20-minute walk from my apartment to the bus stop.

What would you remember from this exchange?
Definitely my flatmates, we had an amazing year together; and all the other people I met who really helped broaden my perspective.
