

How to differentiate your teams?

Vos équipes

- meetings, OFL information... The language department usually send a lot of information here.
- lessons and read your teacher notes.
- In your "ALOHA" team, you will find general information that concerns all students.

• In your "EVENT" team, you will find all the events of the year, for which you are registered and in which you will participate.

• In your "COHORT" team, you will find all the information about your programme, the important topics from your programme director, reminders of

• In your "COURSE" team, you will find all the courses, each team corresponds to a subject. You will be able to upload your homework, download your

